INVOCATION

Moment of Silence

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Council Member Jennifer Brahier

FIRST LEROY BOYD FORUM

Julia Herbst: Introduced herself as the Gulf Coast Program Coordinator for Solar United Neighbors (SUN) and provided information on their organization, communications with City Sustainability Coordinator Jackson, and that they will be participating in the upcoming Ciclovía event on March 26th.

Margaret Hostetter: Referenced her previous request for a license to use the right-of-way adjacent to her property at 1715 East Gonzalez Street (Item No. 21-00452 which Council unanimously denied on 6/17/21) which was based on a code violation of her use of the right-of-way and suggested Council reconsider her request. She indicated (alleged) violations of illegal right-of-way usage continues throughout the area and suggested the City compile a list of “do’s and don’t’s” regarding usage of City right-of-way for dissemination to all citizens.

Council Member Myers made follow-up remarks concurring with Ms. Hostetter and suggested Council schedule a workshop on this issue.

AWARDS

On behalf of Mayor Robinson, City Administrator Fiddler presented a proclamation to Rabbi Mendel Danow with Chabad of Pensacola recognizing Education & Sharing Day. Following the reading of the proclamation, Rabbi Mendel made comments.
