Subject: 2017-2018 Byrne/JAG Grant Application -- Status Update

Good afternoon.

Over the past few weeks, we've received many calls from agencies inquiring as to when the allocations for the state's 2017-2018 Byrne/JAG pass-through funding for locals will be announced by FDLE.

As you are aware, a number of new requirements have been incorporated into the federal fiscal year 2017-2018 Byrne/JAG application that require additional coordination with state and local governing bodies.

As a friendly reminder, state and local governments are responsible for fiscal sustainment of ongoing programs, projects, and personnel in the event that federal grant funds are unavailable.

Please bear with us during this process. Information will be forthcoming via the FDLE grants website as more information becomes available about the next Byrne/JAG pass-through funding cycle.

Thank you,
