INVOCATION

Moment of Silence

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Council Member Teniade Broughton

FIRST LEROY BOYD FORUM

Craig McDonnell: Addressed Council representing Kiwanis Club of Big Lagoon and referred to a handout he provided (at Council's places - - on file) of an upcoming Wreaths Across America event.

Karl Schwelm: Addressed Council representing the Marine Corps League and referred to a handout he provided (at Council's places) of a memorial event being held Saturday at WSRE TV in honor of the 20th anniversary of 9/11.

Michael Bearden: First inquired of fees for parking at City Hall. He then addressed Council regarding matters of what he referred to as "restraint of trade" and related it to issues in the City regarding parking and operating of food trucks.

In response to Mr. Bearden's inquiry, City Administrator Wilkins advised that the fees collected for parking at City Hall is only required of patrons of the Wahoo Stadium and not for public attending Council meeting. Also, that any revenues from City Hall parking fees go back to fund maintenance provided by the City for the Community Maritime Park (CMP).

Gloria Horning: Addressing Council and clarifying that as she has previously mentioned, her home (300 block South DeVilliers Street) has flooded three times (not once) and her property and the street flood all the time and referred to neighbors whose properties were flooded during Hurricane Sally (in September 2020). She further commented on issues with sewage backed-up along with stormwater issues and referred to needing modern infrastructure planning to address new development within the area of Bruce Beach and the Tanyards neighborhood.

Margaret Hostetter: Addressed Council referring to a hand-out (at Council's places - - on file) regarding various (alleged) code violations related to aprons or approaches to driveways and right-of-way parking issues and urged the Council pass a moratorium on enforcement to allow time to explore proposed amendments to the City Code. She also advised the deadline stipulated by the City's magistrate for her property to come into compliance is October 5th and that is why she is urging the passage of a moratorium on enforcement of violations, and further that she has been communicating regularly with Interim Public Works & Facilities Director Forte on these issues (copies of emails attached to the referenced handout at Council's places).

Larry Downs, Jr.: First made comments regarding COVID-19 coronavirus. He then referred to fees required of adult entertainment employees. Council President Moore referenced Item 24, Proposed Ordinance No. 34-21 eliminating permit requirements for adult entertainment establishment employees and indicated he can address Council during consideration of its adoption.
