of Pensacola (CNAPP). My focus since joining the board over two years ago has been to instill community pride. As a fast- evolving community where the old and the new development have come to coincide, my small marketing agency was instrumental in producing the current "The Tanyard Pensacola" brand. We donated the existing branding for the community (Please refer to The Tanyard Community Facebook: https://bit.ly/34pbT9A to view logo) in the hopes to give our neighborhood a recognizable identity. I'm also active in the marketing & communications of our community, mainly through
