Areas of Significance: Architecture, Commerce 910 ==

Significance:

Built after the 1905 fire which destroyed nearly every building in this block, this structure is typical of commercial architecture during the early years of the twentieth century. It was built by F.C. Brent, a Pensacola Financier to house the Watson, Parker and Reese department store. In about 1925, the Bon Marche department store moved into the building and stayed until the mid-1960's.
