- 1) Revised Code Suggestion

Members of the Parks and Recreation board shall engage with the citizens of Pensacola and be liaisons to the public, participate in city events, attend neighborhood meetings, and encourage recreational activities across our park system. The Parks and Recreation Board advise and make recommendations to the city council with timely reports, and shall advise the mayor on matters concerning the establishment, maintenance and operation of parks and recreational activities within the city. The board, based on informed review, shall also provide input to staff, council, and mayor on master plan updates and improvements, and policy development for the use of recreational facilities.
